Total Joint Replacement

Fracture Care

General Orthopaedic Surgery

Welcome to First State Orthopaedics

My love of childhood athletics led me to study biology and physiology at The Pennsylvania State University. I subsequently completed medical school at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, and pursued my orthopedic surgery residency at UPMC Pinnacle Health in Harrisburg, PA. While there, I developed interests in total joint replacement, orthopedic trauma and general orthopedic surgery.

While practicing in Pennsylvania, I received specialized training in direct anterior total hip replacement and have performed many of these surgeries. I believe strongly in the osteopathic philosophy of “function follows form”, and treat patients as an individual “whole”. I look forward to helping you stay active and healthy for as long as possible.

Sincerely,

Anthony C. Falvello, D.O.
